

Project Architect

Quinn Evans Architects is seeking a full-time Project Architect interested in joining our award-winning, growing Detroit office. The ideal candidate must be a collaborative team player, possess excellent technical knowledge, and have a passion for urban revitalization work. Position involves substantial time generating and coordinating construction documents, developing design details, coordinating with consultants, and mentoring staff on a wide range of project types.

Qualifications:

- Professional degree in Architecture with 8 to 12 years' experience in all phases of design and construction.
- Thorough knowledge in the preparation of construction documents and specifications.
- In-depth knowledge of construction materials and assemblies, including new and existing building construction assemblies.
- Working knowledge of building codes and ability to coordinate engineering systems.
- Proficient with Revit and Microsoft Office; experience with Newforma or Deltek software a plus.
- Attention to detail, organized, and self-motivated.
- Collaborative problem-solving skills with a professional work ethic.
