

ARCHITECTURAL REVIT DESIGNER

We're Growing! Seeking a career-minded Architectural Revit Designer with 5+ years' experience in designing for institutional, commercial, and automotive research buildings.

Experience with REVIT and general knowledge of Microsoft Office software is a MUST. Experience with AutoCAD a plus.

Applicants must possess a comprehensive knowledge of building construction, building systems, and document development.

Great benefits! Long term opportunities! Apply via email to RArmstrong@dsonline.com

SIGNING BONUS being offered to registered individuals.

Responsibilities

- Collaborate with the project teams for development of various BIM deliverables to clients, including modeling and detailing for project documents
- Responsible for Revit Project Setup
- Coordinate multi discipline, multi company/consultant projects
- Assist project managers with model presentation and client meetings
- Work on multiple projects simultaneously with the ability to meet deadlines

Minimum Qualifications

- Associates / Bachelor's Degree in Architecture/Engineering, Architectural Technology, or equivalent experience
- 5 years of experience in BIM; Revit or equivalent BIM software
- BIM Tasks include family editing, expanded modeling skills, understanding of BIM Workflows and project setup
- CAD Tasks include CAD content editing, style editing, 3D modeling from base CAD/Vertical application
- Experience with CAD file integration into a project
- Adhere to project execution plans and workflow criteria
- Expanded 3D modeling skills including parametric control of 3D solids within a family or block